	Topic	Task
3:15	Getting Started	Norms -Review objectives and agenda -Celebrations -10th Math, Science, and Reading scores are very high -9th Math is low so far, Science and Reading are great -Lots of banquets going on -Senior trip went well -Kaylee took first overall at Region Golf -Warren PR'd at BYU -New student body in place for '25-'26 -We are finishing the school year strong

3:20	Business Items	-Approval of Previous Meetings Minutes -Amanda moved to approve, Carlia seconded, no opposed: motion passed -School Counseling -Parent/student surveys needed: right now we have 9 responses--we need at least 70. This info drives the counseling program and its funding -100% graduation rate -100% postsecondary application rate (2 or more institutions) -Every senior has been awarded at least one scholarship -15 out of 20 students will be attending a post-secondary program - 93% will have 100% of their 1st year of tuition covered - 86% have received full tuition scholarships for their duration of their program/degree - 80% FAFSA completion rate - Utah average: 38% -Testing Progress -Testing is going well! Getting close to having all students done -Utah Aspire + and Rise Incentive Plan-Update - Proficiency scores are up overall--data supports that the incentive plan has been a success. - Maybe switch the testing schedule so that science doesn't go last each year? - Make data-driven decisions -VHS Handbook Discussion and approval -We will take care of this remotely with the google doc, then vote over the phone in June so it will be ready for next school year -vhs.kanek12.org/calendar/ -Lots of activities coming up from now until the 23rd -Trustlands-Plan signed for those that were absent last meeting -Megan and Brianna stay for a minute to see the Trustlands plan -Concerns from SCC members -No concerns
4:00	End	Review the meeting and create action items Brianna moved to adjourn, Carlia seconded: motion passes
