	Topic	Task
3:00	Getting Started	Norms Don read these. -Review objectives and agenda -Celebrations: Holden Harris will be principal for the day on 10/16. Joeie celebrated State Baseball didn't go great, but good lessons were learned. Home XC meet went well-good community support. Lance has done a great job creating our sportsmanship video. Volleyball Benefit match was really good!

		-Cell phone survey from teachers: Mr. Heath followed up with the teachers on the cell phone policy. Lots of good feedback from teachers. Most teachers don't want to be in charge of monitoring a designated area, and there is mixed feedback on even allowing it. Joeie was concerned that the kids are still using their phones and that our policy doesn't align with what is actually happening. The consensus from the SCC is that we should just leave it the way it is with no designated area. If they want to use their phones during lunch, they can take a walk off campus. -Jr. Prom: Mayor Spencer was sad to hear that there was no longer going to be a traditional prom. Orderville town would be willing to donate up to $2,000 in order to create a traditional prom at the NEC. The juniors will need to fill out a donation form. It would be great if the prom chairs attend the next Orderville Town Council meeting. -Counseling: -Approval of Trustlands Plan Amendments: Form has been updated. Don will send it to SCC. We need to finish the training by 10/16. -Calendars: Don went over the calendar for October. Joeie was concerned that some of the activities are being scheduled on top of each other—makes it tough to have the kids support one another. Other: Mr. Lacey talked about the Barmitzvah Project; a one-man play about the holocaust. One theme is the "othering" of people and its consequences. Don sent the video to the school community council to review and give feedback to decide if it's something we want to show to our students. Probably geared more toward 9th-12th graders than the 7th-8th graders. Concerns: Bryce brought up the three boys basketball games on Tuesdays in November and December. He wasn't sure those dates were passed with the SCC.
4:00	End	Review the meeting and create action items Joeie moved to adjourn, Breanna seconded it. All in favor.
